

Hospice HR in the 21st Century: helping you prepare for future challenges.

Thursday 27 September 2018, Queens Hotel, Leeds

A joint conference with Hospice UK and SHaWL

Programme

9.30	Arrival / Registration / Coffee - John Charles Suite
10.00	Welcome and introduction – Palm Court Matt Corbishley, Director of HR & Support Services, Ashgate Hospicecare and Chair of SHaWL @matt_corbishley
10.15	‘The Leeds Way’ – Dean Royles, HR Consultant Dean Royles, former Director of HR and OD at Leeds Teaching Hospitals (LTHT) and HR Consultant presents ‘The Leeds Way’. In this session Dean will share how these values were embedded at LTHT and their impact on staff. @NHS_Dean
11.00	Refreshments and networking – John Charles Suite
11.15	Policy update – Jonathan Ellis, Director of Advocacy and Change, Hospice UK Jonathan will present a policy update with Q&A @jonnyellis74
11.45	‘Leading a diverse workforce’ – Jaci Curtis-Donnelly, Director of Human Resources & Voluntary Services, Phyllis Tuckwell Hospice Care Table top discussions will focus on how HR can enable an increasingly flexible and multigenerational workforce.
12.30	Supporter’s update by SMI ‘Benefits of a Single Workforce Management System for your Hospice, your Management Team and your Employees’ - Ed Smith, Workforce Management Consultant, SMI In this session Ed will share SMI's experience of streamlining multiple systems (manual and electronic) whilst providing a plethora of benefits and savings for all hospices
12.35	Lunch and networking - John Charles Suite
13.30	‘Future of Work’ – David D’Souza, Membership Director, the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD) – Palm Court David will discuss the future of work, automation and an increasing need for HR to use innovation in technology @dds180
14.15	Refreshments and networking – John Charles Suite
14.30	Deborah Heron, DR Director, St Oswalds introducing ‘Managing wellbeing at work’ – Lorna Jeromson, OD Consultant, LBJ Solutions UK Lorna will present a session on how to manage wellbeing at work effectively and shares best practice on this timely and significant area @LBJsolutionsUK
15.30	Closing summary presented by SHaWL members
16.00	Close – Matt Corbishley

#HospiceHR2018