

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) – Complying with the new law. 8 December 2017, The Walton Centre, Liverpool

Facilitator: Kitty Rosser, Senior Associate - Intellectual Property, Birketts LLP

These workshops are generously supported by donorflex.

Programme

9.30	Arrival / Registration / Coffee
10.15	Opening Comments, Ruth Reid, Courses and Conferences Manager, Hospice UK followed by The Warm Up Two short practical exercises to “set the stage” reminding the key data protection concepts and principles under the current law and introducing it to those with limited prior knowledge.
10.35	Introducing the GDPR An overview of the key changes introduced by the new law with explanations and examples of why and how these changes may impact hospices.
11.25	Break and refreshments
11.45	Building a Compliance Plan This practical session explores how to put together a compliance plan.
12.35	GDPR Question & Answers An opportunity to ask questions about the GDPR and compliance planning.
12.50	A word from our sponsors, donorflex Steve Mason, Client Development Consultant, donorflex
12.55	Lunch
13.55	Workshops Delegates split into pre-selected groups to look at key issues and case studies. Track 1: Focus on Fundraising, Kitty Rosser, Senior Associate Birketts LLP This session looks specifically at the application of the GDPR and PECR to fundraising activities. You will be looking at a case study which looks at key questions around consent, profiling, data management and direct marketing. Track 2: The Data Protection Clinical, Alison Harwood, Director of Clinical Services, Wakefield Hospice This session explores some of the common data protection difficulties faced by clinicians, Caldicott Guardians including case studies from the hospice setting.
14.55	Q & A then Close (if not participating in the donorflex session)

From 15.15

Optional surgery with donorflex