

Clinical Leaders Conference: 'Thinking Differently'

21 June 2019 – Holiday Inn Bloomsbury

Do we have sufficient capacity and an appropriate mind-set to gain insight in the complexity of challenges we now face so we can act effectively? What can we do to develop the capacity in others and ourselves?

Programme Outline

#hospicelearning

09 00	Arrival / Registration / Coffee
09.45	Welcome Erika Lipscome, Director of Clinical Services , The Rowan's Hospice and Chair of ECLiHP
09.55	How to leverage change within complex systems We will explore how to leverage change within our complex systems and consider the skills we need as clinical leaders for the future. Helen Bevan, Chief Transformation Officer , NHS Horizons (NHS England)
10.55	The challenges and opportunities for our work force. Where do we go from here? Anita Hayes, Head of Learning and Workforce , Hospice UK
11.20	Refreshment break
11.50	How the CQC are thinking differently Ellen Armistead, Deputy Chief Inspector for Hospitals , Care Quality Commission to be confirmed
12.20	The Personalised Care agenda - Opportunities for hospices Nicola Kay, Deputy Director: Policy and Strategy Personalised Care Group , NHS England & NHS Improvement
12.50	Sponsor update - Rescape Innovation
13.05	Lunch
14.05	1. Sharing and learning from our colleagues across the sector Three short presentations from your hospice colleagues 2. Using hospice beds differently Kathryn Hamling, Head of Clinical Services, Highland Hospice Controlled drugs checking 'From one to two and back to one!' Jane Eades, Head of Quality Improvement, Marie Curie Hospice, Hampstead 3. 'From pillow talk to practice' adopting a Quality Improvement approach in all we do.

	Tracy Livingstone, Head of Hospice Governance and Education , Nightingale House Hospice
14.50	Refreshment break
15.20	'A ripening harvest. The challenge of living and breathing the difference' Dr Bridgid Hess, Narrative Psychotherapist
16.20	Closing comments Erika Lipscome, Director of Clinical Services , The Rowan's Hospice and Chair of ECLiHP
16.30	Close

Sponsored by:

